

BEST OF THE FALL: ALL-MERCURY NEWS BOYS CROSS COUNTRY

— GLENN REEVES

margin of 24 seconds, running the fastest time of the day (15:11.5) on the 2.95-mile course at Crystal Springs. At his league finals, he joined a select group — becoming the 36th individual in CCS history — to have cracked the 15-minute barrier at Crystal Springs with a time of 14:59.2 at the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League De Anza Division finals. “I am very satisfied with how the season went for me,” Robison said. “CCS and state and the last league race were all very good races because I had a good, solid buildup.”

FIRST TEAM: Meikael Beaudoin-Rouss, Bellarmine College Prep; Nolan Dozier, Sobrato; Graham Faust, Half Moon Bay; Robert Miranda, Menlo School; Matthew Richardson, Bellarmine College Prep; Justin Robison, Lynbrook; Kent Slaney, Palo Alto. ONLINE EXTRA: For the second team and honorable mention, plus more on Robison, visit blogs.mercurynews.com/hssports/

son said. “CCS and state and the last league race were all very good races because I had a good, solid buildup.”

FIRST TEAM: Meikael Beaudoin-Rouss, Bellarmine College Prep; Nolan Dozier, Sobrato; Graham Faust, Half Moon Bay; Robert Miranda, Menlo School; Matthew Richardson, Bellarmine College Prep; Justin Robison, Lynbrook; Kent Slaney, Palo Alto. ONLINE EXTRA: For the second team and honorable mention, plus more on Robison, visit blogs.mercurynews.com/hssports/

Add Comment

San Jose Mercury News 10 Dec 2015