High school recap: Bellarmine runner wins CCS D-I cross country title

Bells' Meika Beaudoin-Rosse defeats Palo Alto standout Kent Slaney with fastest overall time.

Palo Alto's Kent Slaney, shown running last month at the Stanford Invitational, had the second-fastest time at the CCS finals, but finished second to Bellarmine's Meika Beaudoin-Rosse.

Bellarmine's Meika Beaudoin-Rosse covered the 2.95-mile course at Crystal Springs last weekend in 14 minutes, 58.8 seconds, winning the Central Coast Section Division I boys championship race by 12.9 seconds over Palo Alto's Kent Slaney, who had the second-fastest time among the five divisions.

The victory propelled the Bells to the Division I team crown.

Homestead's Elena Kamas won the Division I girls race in 17:57.7, helping her team comfortably win the D-I title.
