HOT TIMES . . . Four members of the Palo Alto Lightning Track and Field team survived temperatures that reached 110 degrees in Livermore last weekend to qualify for the Region 14 Junior Olympics, scheduled for July 10-12 in Bakersfield. Kent Slaney of Palo Alto qualified in the Bantam Boys' 800 and 1500 meters; Olivia Cell of Palo Alto advanced in the Midget Girls' 800; sister Alexandria Cell of Palo Alto made it in the Youth Girls' 800 and Katie Spence qualified by winning the Youth Girls' 800 in a wire-to-wire performance. All four finished among the top eight in their respective races. They'll need to be among the top three finishers in Bakersfield in order to qualify for the National Junior Olympics in Greensboro, N.C.
